Has there been previous sustained occurrences for the same behavior in the last 12 months? Yes* No

Details surrounding the occurrence:
 April of 2021, this officer came under internal investigation as a result of conduct that occurred off-duty involving a family household member. Pursuant to policy he was investigated for misconduct. At the time of investigation this officer was on extended leave as a result of a non-disciplinary matter. December of 2021, the investigation was completed and a sustained finding for the misconduct was made. During the internal investigation un-confirmed information suggesting he had engaged in a relationship that could have been illegal prior to working as a police officer was disclosed. Due to a conflict with internal affairs criminally investigating this officer after potential garrity information was disclosed, the investigation was turned over to another law enforcement agency to determine the veracity of the allegations. At the time of this notice, we do not know the case number. Investigation is ongoing and no finding has been made.

Section 4: This section must be signed by the agency head or designee indicating the agency is aware of this action.

I understand that the WSCJTC will rely on the information provided in Section 2 for matters pertaining to peace and corrections officer certification and I declare under penalty of perjury under the law of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Signed this 30 day of Dec., 2021, in Yakima, Washington.
